

NO FREE TUITION FOR COUNTY PUPILS IN CITY SCHOOLS

Where there are convenient and adequate high schools provided by the County Board of Education the board cannot be compelled to contract with a city high school for free tuition for county pupils, Judge Robert J. Stout decided in the Franklin Circuit Court in the suit of John Sacra who sought to enjoin the Franklin county board to arrange for his daughter's admission to the Frankfort high school.

The county high schools provide a two years' course and the board has a contract with the city schools for the third and fourth years for the benefit of rural pupils. Judge Stout held that this is all that is required of the county board. The county high school at Thorn Hill, a suburb, is within three miles of the Sacra home.

County Superintendent L. D. Stucker stated that if a contract was made with the city schools for the first two years it would destroy the county high schools and deprive the children of people who could not afford to send them to the city of an opportunity for an education.

WHERE THERE'S A BABY ON THE FARM KEEP RAT-SNAP

Rats are on most farms. Once they get inside the house—look out. Rats kill infants—biting them is not unusual. Nursing bottles attract rats. Break a cake of RAT-SNAP and throw it around. It will surely rid you of rats and mice. Three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by the Farmers' Supply Company.

THE CHEAP DOLLAR.

With the purchasing power of the dollar lower than it has ever been, it is the part of wisdom to put some of them to work earning interest, until the time that money is worth more. War Savings Stamps enable the wage earner to do this. Save what you can and invest it in W. S. S.

—Miss Mary Louise Borner entertained a number of her young friends Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00, the occasion being her tenth birthday.

—There was a Sunday School rally at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. Special services were conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong. A nice sum was realized.

—Mrs. Lewis Frederick left Wednesday for a visit to relatives in Lexington, after which she will join her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Redd, in their new home in Harrodsburg.

—Elder G. W. Nutter, of Nicholasville, was a guest of friends here Thursday and Friday. Elder Nutter is former pastor of the Christian church here, and his many friends gave him the glad hand.

—Miss Marguerite B. Clarke left Saturday for a visit to friends in Lexington, after which she will go to Louisville, where she will remain until winter, from thence to Florida, where she will spend the winter.

—The protracted meeting which is in progress at the Presbyterian church, is growing in interest. Dr. Thacker draws large crowds with every service, and is preaching practical, logical, philosophical and intellectual sermons. He has the faculty of carrying his audience with him wherever he leads. The music, which is under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong, is equally good.

—Mr. Armstrong is not only a good choir leader, but also a good soloist. The card system is used in the services and no one is asked to come forward. This is a departure from anything of the kind that has ever been done in Millersburg, and our people are taking kindly to it. The meeting will continue through the week. Services every afternoon at three and in the evening at 7:30.

—Mrs. Mattie Hawes and son, Mr. Albert Hawes, left Saturday for their new home in Covington. Mr. W. E. Butler left Monday for Paris, where he will remain until Wednesday, at which time he will join his sister and nephew, Mrs. Hawes and son, in their new home in Covington. It is with many regrets that we give these good people up. They are among our best citizens, and natives of the community. Mrs. Hawes has spent much time from here during her married life, and even afterward, while residing in Chicago, she was frequently in our midst, and during the declining days of her mother she again identified herself with Millersburg. Mr. W. E. Butler is one of the best known citizens of Millersburg, though he has never been prominently connected with any business enterprise, everybody knows "Earnest." His congenial manner and quaint stories will cause him to be remembered by all with whom he has ever come in contact.
